Liturgy and Life

The First Sunday of Advent is the Church's official "New Year's Day." Today's reading from the Gospel suggests a good new year's resolution: develop one good habit for keeping alert to God's saving action. When we look around, what do we see? Lights, tinsel, carols, frantic holiday shopping. How can we find a center in this distracting world? Perhaps keeping a spiritual journal could help. Make time each day to write your thoughts and questions about where God is leading you at this moment. Growth in the spiritual life depends not on occasional inspirations and good feelings but on ingrained practices that see us through the hard times, Jesus says, "Be watchful! Be alert!" By paying attention to the quiet, hidden things is already doing in your life every day, you will see that you already live as God's beloved. Happy new year!

ANOUNCEMENTS:

- ◆ Today's Liturgy and Life segment suggests journaling. A nice way to reflect before putting pen to paper is to drop in on this catholic podcast: "The God Minute." It is available through your phone app store; and, provides a relaxing/meditative 10 minutes each day. Give it a try.

- ◆ Deacon Bonifacio, Maribel and their daughter Yanessa are experiencing a very difficult time in their lives, our prayerful support is greatly needed. A Go Fund Me page is available that provides updated info - link on the parish webpage (methowcatholic.org)
