Introduction to the Liturgy of the Day

During Lent, our Lord calls us to make a conversion of the heart. Our parents, teachers, or mentors can show us the way, but then it is up to us to commit to Christ's mission. As we approach the days in which we remember Jesus' suffering and death, we ask ourselves if we are willing to resolve to die to sin and to live faithfully, selflessly, and courageously in the Lord.

Introduction to the Liturgy of the Word

Jeremiah 31:31-34 I will make a new covenant and remember their sin no more.

Psalm 51 "Create a clean heart in me, O God."

Hebrews 5:7-9 Christ learned obedience and became the source of eternal salvation.

John 12:20-33 If a grain of wheat falls to the ground and dies, it produces much fruit.

Jeremiah sets the tone for today's readings when he writes that the LORD promises a new covenant. The old covenant was external: the Chosen People were led by the hand. But the new covenant is internal, written upon our hearts. As Christians, we believe that the new covenant is fulfilled in God's Son, who came into our hearts at baptism, who animates our lives, and who can be found in those we meet. Can we be like a grain of wheat, alive in the Lord, producing much fruit?

- ◆ CareNet Diaper Drive: Our annual support for the young families/mothers has arrived; and, we are asking our parish family to prayerfully consider donating a package or packages of diapers (size 4 is most needed). This annual effort continues to help support a young mother's decision to choose life for her infant rather than abandonment. As always: Thank you for being there.

- ◆ Annual Spring Cleaning: Time is slipping away rather quickly this year and we really need to gather together and do some spring cleaning inside and out. Although notice is very short, please consider joining us on Saturday (Mar 27th) beginning at 9:00 a.m.—don't forget your gloves, gardening/lawn maintenance tools and indoor cleaning tricks. Our goal is to finish cleaning by noon or very shortly thereafter.
