Introduction to the Liturgy of the Day

We are an Easter people. Whatever our circumstances may be, or the circumstances of the world, we gather today in joy because our Lord truly rose from the dead, conquering death and bringing the promise of eternal life. On Easter Sunday we renewed our baptismal promises, affirming our faith, renouncing sin and evil, and promising to follow Christ in the newness of life. Let us live our lives in the joy of the Resurrection and spread that joy to all we meet.

Introduction to the Liturgy of the Word

Acts 3:13-15, 17-19 The author of life you put to death, but God raised him from the dead.

Psalm 4 "Lord, let your face shine on us."

1 John 2:1-5a Jesus Christ is expiation not for our sins only but for those of the whole world.

Luke 24:35-48 Thus it was written that the Christ would suffer and rise from the dead on the third day.

Our readings today take us back in time to the days that followed Jesus' resurrection. Peter preached in the temple, promising forgiveness for those who repent and convert. John wrote to the early Christian community, promising the love of God to those who keep the commandments. Before all this, Jesus appeared to his disciples, assuring them of his bodily presence and charging them to testify in his name to the whole world. Let us listen, knowing we are called to do the same.
