Introduction to the Liturgy of the Day

We celebrate Good Shepherd Sunday today, recalling Jesus' promise to protect us from harm, to rescue us when we stray, and to guide us home at the end of the day. Ultimately Jesus laid down his life for us, as he told his disciples that he would do. We likely come here today with worries and concerns on our mind. Let us find comfort in knowing that the Good Shepherd watches over us, providing comfort, protection, guidance, and above all, salvation.

Introduction to the Liturgy of the Word

Acts 4:8-12 There is no salvation through anyone else.

Psalms 118 "The stone rejected by the builders has become the cornerstone."

1 John 3:1-2 We are God's children now.

John 10:11-18 The good shepherd lays down his life for the sheep.

Two metaphors in today's readings describe Jesus. Peter, drawing upon the words of the psalmist, calls Jesus the cornerstone. He is the foundation of our Christian faith, the one who conquered death and brought salvation to the world. In the Gospel, Jesus identifies himself as the Good Shepherd. He leads and cares for his sheep, even sheep outside the fold, eventually laying down his life for them, for us. Let us reflect on how Jesus is our cornerstone and our shepherd.

◆ COVID 19 update: As the weather grows warmer ; and, more people become fully vaccinated, it is only natural to want to enjoy greater freedom. The CDC is currently discussing options regarding the facemask; but, as usual ,they have yet to release a decision. The Bishop's conference is also reviewing information; but, until such time as the existing requirements are modified we will continue to maintain current masking protocols, especially while meeting in enclosed spaces. The good news is that we can now join in singing the hymns while masked. There seems to be a little more light at the end of the tunnel.
