Liturgy of the Word

Jeremiah 31:7-9 The blind and the lame I will bring back: I will console them.

Psalms 126 "The Lord has done great things for us; we are filled with joy."

Hebrews 5:1-6 You are a priest forever according to the order of Melchizedek.

Mark 10:46-52 Master, I want to see.

Whereas last Sunday the readings focused on the trials and sufferings of our Lord and the service to which we are all called, today's readings celebrate the joy that our faith in God brings. Jeremiah tells how God will gather the Chosen People from the ends of the earth. Hebrews reminds us that God calls all who lead the church, and in fact sent the great high priest, Jesus Christ, into the world. In the Gospel, Jesus heals blind Bartimaeus, who leaves his former way of life behind to follow Jesus. May we be blessed with his courage.

Question of the Week:

What aspect of my life needs healing? What do I want Jesus to do for me?

Today is World Mission Sunday, when we focus on the mission of the Church, which is to bring the Good News to the whole world. When we think of missionaries, we think of men and women who have dedicated their lives to bringing the gospel to people in Third World countries. But we are all missionaries, witnessing by our own lives to the good news we have come to know in the Lord. Let us recommit ourselves to that mission as we celebrate the Eucharist.
