Liturgy of the Word

Isaiah 60:1–6 The glory of the Lord shines on all people.

Psalms 72 “Lord, every nation on earth will adore you.”

Ephesians 3:2–3a, 5–6 The Gentiles are coheirs of the promise.

Matthew 2:1–12 They presented gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh.

Isaiah’s excitement bubbles over as he describes how the glory of the Lord will attract pilgrims to Jerusalem from all over the world. Paul preaches that all people—Gentiles as well—are equal partners in this new faith, coheirs to the kingdom. In the Gospel, we hear the story of the magi, journeying to Bethlehem to offer their gifts to the newborn king. May God’s word inspire us as we make our own journeys to the new Jerusalem.

Question of the Week: How has my encounter with the Lord through this Christmas season changed me? Where do I imagine my new path will lead?

The Magi set out because of a deep desire which prompted them to leave everything and begin a journey. It was as though they had always been waiting for that star.
