Liturgy of the Word

.Genesis 22:1–2, 9a, The sacrifice of Abraham, our father in faith10–13, 15–18

Psalm 116 "I will walk before the Lord, in the land of the living.

Romans 8:31b–34 God did not spare his own Son.

Mark 9:2–10 This is my beloved Son.

Old Testament meets New Testament in today's Gospel, which features Jesus, the center of the New Testament, with two of the main figures from the Hebrew scriptures, Moses and Elijah. The two people who perhaps best represent the law and the prophets of old join with the Son of God, who himself said that he had come to fulfill the law and the prophets. In the company of Moses and Elijah, Jesus is transfigured, giving his disciples a brief taste of his glory. May that glorious vision sustain us during this penitential season.

Question of the Week How do I think God would want my life to be transfigured this Lent? Am I willing to say "hineni" to accept that change to my life?
