Liturgy of the Word

Exodus 20:1-17 or 20:1-3, 7-8, 12-17 The law was given through Moses.

Psalms 19 "Lord, you have the words of everlasting life."

1 Corinthians 1:22-25 We proclaim Christ crucified, a stumbling block to many, but to those who are called, the wisdom of God.

John 2:13-25 Destroy this temple, and in three days I will raise it up.

Today's readings are very familiar. We hear the ten commandments, which we probably memorized as children. In the Gospel, Jesus drives the money changers out of the temple, overturning their tables and spilling their coins. Let us challenge ourselves to listen to these words today as if God is personally speaking to us, telling us how to live and reminding us of the purpose of worship. With Easter less than a month away now, let us take to heart the words of the psalmist: "Lord, you have the words of everlasting life."

Question of the Week: Who can I invite to reconcile with? How can I view my relationships based more on love than on reciprocation? How does that affect how I act?
