Liturgy of the Word

Wisdom 1:13-15; 2:23-24 By the envy of the devil, death entered the world.

Psalms 30 "I will praise you, Lord, for you have rescued me."

2 Corinthians 8:7, 9, 13-15 Your abundance should supply the needs of the poor.

Mark 5:21-43 or 5:21-24, 35b-43 Little girl, I say to you, arise!

Wisdom reminds us that we are created in God's image to share in God's nature.

However, because of sin, we have become mortal beings. But the Lord has rescued us, for Jesus has restored life and defeated death. His healings of Jairus's daughter and the woman with hemorrhages show his power to do so. To paraphrase what Paul wrote to the Corinthians, by giving of himself, Jesus has graciously enriched us.

Question of the Week: How does my faith affect the way I anticipate death? How can it increase my courage? How can I encourage others to keep the faith?

Friends, there's something Hemingway-esque about Mark's Gospel – something very direct and uncomplicated. But in another sense, he shows great literary sophistication, and you see it especially in this famous passage for today: the story of the daughter of Jairus, which is interrupted by the story of the hemorrhaging woman. Of course we read these as marvelous miracle stories of Jesus, but they're meant to speak of the miracle of grace that still goes on in the life of the Church today. ~ Bishop Robert Barron
