Liturgy of the Word

Acts 1:1-11 As the Apostles were looking on, Jesus was lifted up.

Psalm 47 "God mounts his throne to shouts of joy: a blare of trumpets for the Lord."

Ephesians 1:17-23 Christ is the head of the church; where he is we are called to follow.

Luke 24:46-53 As he blessed them, he was taken up to heaven.

Besides his Gospel, Saint Luke also wrote the Acts of the Apostles. Today, we get to hear the ending of one and the beginning of the other, for Jesus' ascension marks the transition between the two. As Luke writes, the Gospel deals with what Jesus said and did while on earth, and Acts begins with Jesus giving his disciples a mission. As we carry on this mission, let us realize how Jesus is still present with us today: in each other, in those in need, when we gather in his name, in the Eucharist, and in the proclamation of the word. Listening to his word now, let us be aware of his constant and enduring presence.

Question of the Week: How have I borne witness to Jesus Christ? How will I bear witness between now and Pentecost?
